

AUSTRALIAN WINERY NUGAN ESTATE AWARDED THE RIEDEL WINEMAKER OF THE YEAR AWARD IN TORONTO

PRESENTED BY THE CAMBRIDGE FOOD AND WINE SOCIETY, THIRD-GENERATION
WINEMAKER MATTHEW NUGAN CONTINUES THE SUCCESS OF THE FAMILY
BUSINESS, KNOWN FOR ITS DEDICATION TO CREATING HIGH VALUE WINES

TORONTO – Announced today, the Cambridge Food and Wine Society will present Nugan Estate Winemaker and General Manager Matthew Nugan with the Riedel Winemaker of the Year award on October 26, at an exclusive affair attended by diplomats, LCBO members, restaurateurs and esteemed Canadian wine writers. This award specifically recognizes Nugan Estate’s outstanding achievement in producing exceptional wine.

“From the Riedel family to mine, this award brings with it a new sense of achievement for our winery and what we do,” said Matthew Nugan, Winemaker and General Manager, Nugan Estate. “Our team at Nugan Estate has been busy creating new and limited edition releases and we hope wine lovers around the world will continue enjoying our wines.”

Producing glass for over 250 years and eleven generations, Riedel is recognized worldwide for designing and producing high quality glasses and decanters for the enjoyment of wine and spirits. Previous winners of the Riedel Winemaker of the Year Award include California’s Robert Mondavi, Miguel Torres of Spain and Lamberto Frescobaldi of Italy.

Contributing to both the production and sales side of the business, Matthew Nugan is responsible for launching the company’s brands in the export market, spending several months of the year hosting wine tastings and conferences, as well as visiting retail outlets and wine buyers. His achievements span beyond winemaking; he is responsible for successfully building Nugan Estate into one of Australia’s top wine exporters.

About Nugan Estate:
